Subject: Please pay the article-processing charge for your article in Cell & Bioscience

Dear Prof. Kong,

We are delighted to confirm that your manuscript has been received by the Production team for publication in Cell & Bioscience and we will be in touch with you shortly.

In order to ensure your manuscript is published as quickly as possible, please pay the article-processing charge (APC) using the link below. The APC for this submission is GBP 1370.0 / EUR 1745.0 / USD 2145.0.

<https://payment.biomedcentral.com/manuscript/3230339082058123>

Please note that if online payment is not made within 7 days an invoice will be issued and an administration charge will be added to your total APC. Once an invoice has been issued the option to pay online is automatically removed and cannot be reversed. Note, invoice (off-line) payments will incur an additional charge of GBP 50.00 / EUR 55.00 / USD 75.00.

If you have any problems or questions regarding your manuscript, please do get in touch.

Best wishes,

BioMed Central Customer Services
